

Natural & sustainable formulas
with OLVE'True™ Shea

Deep hydration body lotion with natural upcycled oils

To take care of yourself

Nowadays, millennials and Gen Zs are looking for more authentic and transparent brands, especially when it comes to sustainability. Beyond the pursuit of a high-quality skincare product, they want to give a meaningful purpose to their consumption. Increasingly concerned with product claims and certifications, they value clean products with green and ethical claims lining up with their values.

What it is

- This nutrient-rich formula combines certified fair trade OLVE'True™ Shea butter and upcycled OLVE'True™ Avocado and OLVE'True™ Macadamia oils to leave the skin intensely hydrated for a smooth and comfortable day.
- With its lightweight texture which is quickly absorbed into your skin, this moisturizing body lotion helps to protect normal to dry skin from dehydration.

Why you'll love it

- Enriched with nourishing upcycled COSMOS Approved plant oils
- Fresh, light and unctuous texture that provides a cooling sensation
- Minimalist vegan formula made with 98,2% natural origin ingredients (ISO 16 128)

Use

Apply daily after shower all over the body.
